

You work as an intern at a large international engineering company, MKE. MKE wants to become more eco-friendly and has asked its interns to write a short in-house blog post.

In your blog post you should:

- discuss why sustainability is important in engineering
  - present ways to make workplaces more eco-friendly
  - suggest ways for MKE to help employees become ‘greener’ at work

Give your blog post a title. Write around 250 words.
